Within this awful Volume lies
The mystery of mysteries,
Oh, happiest they of human race
To Whom their God has given grace
To read, to fear, to hope, to pray,
To lift the latch and force the way!
But better had they ne'er been born,
Who read to doubt, or read to scorn.

OPERATION HER ONLY CHANCE

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Adrian, Ga.—"I suffered untold misery from a female weakness and disease, and I could not stand more than a minute at a time. My doctor said an operation was the only chance I had, and I dreaded it almost as much as death. One day I was reading how other women had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and decided to try it. Before I had taken one bottle I was better, and now I am completely cured."—LENA V. HENRY, Route No. 3, Adrian, Ga.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration. If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be absolutely confidential, and the advice free.

MARY PEALE WILSON.

Sad news was the announcement yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, conveying the information that Mrs. Mary Peale Wilson had just passed away at her residence in West Fourth street.

Mrs. Wilson had been ill for several months, and at one time, some three months ago, her condition was reported as critically hopeless, but she rallied and grew much better under the watchful care of her physician, Dr. W. H. Tanbee, and the best of attention from a trained nurse. However, the insidious hand of Death had marked her for his own, and despite scientific medical treatment she steadily lost ground and passed peacefully to the Home of all Homes at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, aged about sixty-six years.

Mrs. Wilson was a chronic sufferer from heart disease, requiring the most careful attention throughout her long illness, which she bore with exemplary patience.

She had been for many years a resident of this city, where she was universally loved and respected for her many virtues.

She was born near the city of Philadelphia, and came from a family distinguished for its artistic talent, Rembrandt Peale, the great painter, being a close connection of her father. She received the highest advantages in her scholastic training and exhibited in her social life many qualities that could be derived alone from birth and associations.

Her husband, Mr. Robert Wilson, was a native of this State, and until they moved to Danville to educate their son, resided in the county of Bath. After the death of their child, which was the crowning grief of her life, they removed to Maysville, where they had many sympathetic and appreciative friends. Mr. Wilson did not long survive his lovely child, and his widow's only solace. Her only thought seemed to be a life of daily charity, as many can testify who were the daily recipients of it.

Of Mrs. Wilson's quiet life here in Maysville and the many evidences of noble character and good sense displayed in her daily life and contact with the business world, we all could see and understand the unselfish nature of the woman and the deep-seated desire to better the conditions of the poor and the destitute and the infirm. Inspired by such a noble impulse the deceased bought the Hayswood school property in West Fourth street, directly opposite her own beautiful home, and transferred and dedicated it for the use and purposes of a City and County Hospital, or Sanitarium, where the maimed and the suffering could secure medical succor and up-to-date sanitary treatment at a nominal cost. This splendid property later and only recently passed into the hands of a Board of Managers, who, assisted by the energetic women of Maysville, have now reopened the institution and are operating it on the lines of a general Hospital, where the rich shall pay and the poor be given free treatment to the best of the Hospital's at present limited financial ability.

This Memorial Hospital was established in 1907 by Mrs. Wilson, who expended in all about $8,000 for the buildings and modern equipment. She seemed to take a heartfelt interest in her work and personally attended to fitting up many of the wards in the Hospital and untiringly devoting her time and money to the enterprise. Of the ten wards Mrs. Wilson furnished four of them at her own expense.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church congregation of this city. The interment will be in the handsome Wilson lot in the Maysville Cemetery beside the graves of her husband and son.

Deceased was a very methodical and conservative business woman and leaves a comfortable estate, in money, securities and real estate in this city and elsewhere, the total value of which is estimated at figures between $25,000 and $30,000. While the bulk of her estate may go to her relatives, yet it is surmised that she has substantially remembered Hayswood Hospital by leaving quite a snug sum as an endowment fund. However, this is merely surmise, as she took no one into her confidence except her attorneys, Thomas D. Slattery and the late Clarence L. Salles, who drew up her will several years ago.

Mrs. Wilson leaves one sister, Mrs. L. P. Grimmer of Chattanooga, Tenn., who will arrive here this afternoon, accompanied by her son, Mr. Charles Grimmer. She also leaves two other nephews, Mr. Hayden Marshall of EVER HAVE IT?

If You Have, the Statement of This Maysville Citizen Will Interest You

Ever have a "low-down" pain in the back? In the "small" right over the hips? That's the home of backache. It's caused by clogged kidneys.

That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it. Maysville people endorse this. Read a case of it:

Frederick Drael, 1238 East Second street, Maysville, Ky., says:
"I consider Doan's Kidney Pills to be a most excellent remedy for kidney trouble and am only too glad to speak in their praise. About five years ago I was bothered by weak kidneys and the secretions were scanty and attended with pain during passage. Severe pains across the small of my back were frequent and at times greatly interfered with my work. While telling a friend of my condition, he advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a box at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore. I used them according to directions and they afforded me prompt and effective relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

While other forms of Artificial Lighting have been content to twitter with bird-like repetition "cheap, cheap, cheap," Electric Light has been loudly singing the praises of its sun-like glow and whiteness. Stamped on the public mind as the "Light of Quality," with the advent of the Tungsten Lamp it now challenges comparison of efficiency and cost.
